

SIP & VENT EVENT II

MARCH 7th, 4-6pm
Stellwagen Beer Company
Marshfield, MA

A Beer & Talk Community

In these absolutely
INSANE times, COMMUNITY is what we need most. Come talk,
grab a beer, get a hug,
let out a primal scream (outback please, we want to come back)
whatever, with people as
fed up, angry, bullshit, numb up as you are.

This is an unofficial, non-affiliated community meet-up.
Not sponsored by Stellwagen

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

Angry & annoyed
sane
people

Non-Partisan Support

After a terrific first event we are holding a 2nd meet up!
(Hopefully no snow squalls this time.) Come join a supportive community to network, talk current events, and connect with a non-partisan group of people who give a shit.

If you have been looking for a way to feel less isolated & powerless and you have been wanting to connect with a greater good through community...

Start here with us.

Come Sip & Vent... we will
